

THE SOUTH AFRICAN
SOCIETY FOR HISTORY
TEACHING (SASHT)

17th ANNUAL SOCIETY CONFERENCE

hosted by the Faculty of Education, University of Stellenbosch
at Erinvale Estate Hotel & Spa, Somerset West, South Africa
4-5 October 2012

THEME

Back to the Future? The Value of History Teaching for Tomorrow

Master of Ceremonies: Mr Patrick McMahon (Crawford College, Sandton)

Wednesday, 3 October 2012

TIME	MEETING & REGISTRATION
16:00-18:00	Pre-conference registration (for those delegates who wish to register early)
17:30-20:00	SASHT Executive Committee meeting
20:00	SASHT Executive Committee business dinner

Thursday, 4 October 2012

TIME
07:30-08:30	REGISTRATION: Refreshments & SASHT Conference registration, SASHT membership subscription and nominations for SASHT executive positions.

	Venue: Camphor
FACILITATOR: Prof Arend Carl (Stellenbosch University)
08:30-08:40	Prof Elize van Eeden (Chairperson, SASHT)	Word of welcome
08:40-08:50	Mr Patrick McMahon (Master of Ceremonies) (Crawford College, Sandton)	Brief guidelines regarding conference proceedings
08:50-09:50	KEYNOTE ADDRESS
FACILITATOR: Prof Arend Carl (Stellenbosch University)	Dr Dan Sleigh	The separation of societies from their past: an under-appreciated tragedy
	Venue: Camphor
FACILITATOR: Mr Simon Haw (KZN DoE)	PRESENTERS	PAPER/WORKSHOP TITLE
09:50-10:10	Dr Susan Bester (North-West University)	Collecting and organising the multimedia components for the development of educational DVDs and multimedia clips for grade 10 History: The French Revolution – some practical guidelines
10:10-10:30	Ms Nokuzola Bikwana (Cape Town Holocaust Center)	Holocaust education can still play a big role in helping South Africans memorialise their past history as a way of paving the future

10:30-10:50	Dr Wessel Visser (Stellenbosch University)	To publish a history textbook: Notes on the compilation of the South African Academy for Science and Art's new history textbook Geskiedenis van Suid-Afrika. Van Voortye tot Vandag
10:50-11:00		QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSION
11:00-11:20	TEA/COFFEE – FOYER
	Venue: Camphor
FACILITATOR: Mr Paul Haupt (Settlers High School)	PRESENTERS	PAPER/WORKSHOP TITLE
11:20-11:40	Dr Francois Cleophas (University of Stellenbosch)	Replaying school sport: A sport historical exploration of establishment of mass based school sport in 20 th century Cape Town
11:40-12:10	Mr Simon Haw (Retired from KZN DoE)	Blowing your own trumpet – How to give your school history department a high profile
12:10-12:40	Mr Ryan Andreas (Babanango Environmental Centre)	Babanango Environmental Centre and what we can offer History students, teachers and educators
12:40- 13:00		QUESTIONS & DISCUSSION
13:00- 13:50	LUNCH

Venue: Camphor
FACILITATOR: Dr Helen Ludlow (Univ of the Witwatersrand)	PRESENTERS	PAPER/WORKSHOP TITLE
13:50-14:10	Prof Arend Carl (Stellenbosch University)	War remembrances of an ex-prisoner of war and the relevance for History: Some personal reflections
14:10-14:30	Dr Raymond van Diemel (Stellenbosch University)	The controversy around Apartheid – challenges and opportunities for the History Teacher
14:30-14:50	Mr Ntokozo Sibiyi (University of the Witwatersrand)	The Relevance of African History for 21 st Century
14:50-15:20	Harold Herman & David Sayer	The Coachman's Cottage Museum as custodian of local history of schools and communities of the Helderberg region
15:20-15:30		QUESTIONS & DISCUSSION
15:30-15:50	TEA/COFFEE – FOYER
Venue: Camphor
FACILITATOR: Dr Francois Cleophas (University of Stellenbosch)
15:50-16:10	Ms Henriëtte Lubbe (University of South Africa)	Researching and developing the emotional intelligence of History teachers in the Lejweleputswa District, Free State (South Africa)

16:10-16:30	Dr Helen Ludlow (University of the Witwatersrand)	What's the fuss about chocolate? Ghana, cocoa, nationalism and globalization
16:30-16:50	Prof Peter Kallaway (University of Cape Town)	History in Senior Secondary School: CAPS 2012 and beyond
16:50-17:30 (Workshop)	Mr Craig Divis (University of the Free State)	The Rainbow Resistance: Creatively Teaching the Struggle to Today's Learners
17:30-17:40		QUESTIONS & DISCUSSION
	Venue: Camphor
17:40-18:40	Annual General Meeting
20:00	Magnolia Restaurant CONFERENCE DINNER (Sponsored by Dr Chris van der Merwe, Curro Holdings)

Friday, 5 October 2012

TIME
07:45-08:30	REGISTRATION: Refreshments & SASHT Conference registration
	Venue: Camphor
FACILITATOR: Mr Barry Firth (Crestway High School)	PRESENTERS	PAPER/WORKSHOP TITLE
8:30-8:50	Prof Elize van Eeden (North-West University)	Valuing the teaching of History: National and international reflections post 1994 as a contemplation for tomorrow's teaching History in South Africa

08:50-09:10	Me Karen Horn (Stellenbosch University)	Oral history in the classroom: Linking historical research and history education
09:10-09:30	Ms Claudia Smith (University of the Witwatersrand)	Visual Literacy in History Teaching: Photographs as Opinions, not Reality
09:30-09:50	Dr Pieter Warnich (North-West University)	Assessing History and Social Sciences teachers' attitudes towards learner-centred instruction
09:50-10:10	Prof Johan Wasserman (University of KwaZulu-Natal)	This is what we should learn in history at school! – Reflections on the history curriculum imagined by young prospective history teachers' views
10:10-10:20		QUESTIONS & DISCUSSION
10:20-10:45	TEA/COFFEE – FOYER
	Venue: Camphor
FACILITATOR: Prof Johan Wasserman (University of KwaZulu-Natal) 10:45-11:30	Panel discussion: History in Action: The voice of the learners (Schools: Mr Barry Firth, Crestway High School; Mr Alton Lubbe, Steenberg High School; Mr Roy Prinsloo, Fairmount High School)
11:30-12:20 (Workshop)	Ms Henriëtte Lubbe (University of South Africa)	Teaching History the EQ way: Emotional intelligence training for History teachers
12:20-12:30		QUESTIONS & DISCUSSION

MASTER OF CEREMONIES: Mr Patrick McMahon (Crawford College, Sandton)
12:30-12:50	Prof Elize van Eeden (NWU, Vanderbijlpark)	Conference summary and some general thoughts on the value of history teaching for tomorrow
12:50		Closure of the programme
13:00-18:00	Depart on excursion to Solms-Delta Museum – Lunch served on the bus	